Seventeen days and 35 hours to complete large mural in Velva

The newly formed Velva Veterans Group (VVG) has been making great progress in updating the interior of the American Legion Joseph I. Weller Post #39 located on Main Street.

The group had reached out to Lacey Holmen, a local photographer, artist and paraeducator for the Velva School District, about creating a large military-themed mural inside the building as part of their renovation initiative. She agreed and the first thought that came to her was the rising flag of Iwo Jima, which

ND Author teams up with the Henke's for book signing in Velva

Reporter Heather Tudor

Mark your calendars because next Wednesday is the day to get your hands on the book about how it all started. Unless you live under a rock, you know that the now world-famous Dot's Pretzels first came about in our beloved community of Velva,

North Dakota. "They caught them sleeping, how DOT reinvented the pretzel" written by Jeff Kolpack will be coming to Velva on Wednesday, October 16th at the new location of the Velva Area
