

KULM

By Kathy Schlecht

Lloyd and Loretta Anderson of Jamestown were recent visitors of Arla Anderson.

Jason and Caitlin Lault of Jamestown were recent dinner guests and visitors of Rick and Kathy Schlecht.

Rick and Kathy Schlecht were recent business callers in Bismarck on Tuesday and also enjoyed a delicious lunch and visit with Kathy’s sister, Marlys and Don Wolf of Bismarck.

Crystal Duecker of Fargo was a Monday overnight guest in the home of Gordon and Kathy Irion.

Kathy Wendland of Jamestown was a weekend guest in the home of Gordon and Kathy Irion. Saturday they all went to Lisbon to spend the day with Russell Wendland, a resident at Lisbon Soldiers Home and also with his sons, Mike and Jess Wendland of Rugby, and Justin Wendland of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Justin’s friend Tia of Billings, Montana. Jerry and Karla Laeger of Bismarck were also visiting with Russell and his guests.

On September 8th, The Jud Lions kicked off the start of another year of service to the community. It was called to order at The Jud Bar and Grill by President Melissa Powers as she welcomed the members and New Voices chair Crystal Dueker from the Fargo Gateway Lions. After a report by Treasurer Darrell Pfaff, there were topics of discussion-

October 4th set as Volunteer Day at Service Dogs for America in Jud. The club also approved of sponsoring Turkey Bingo and collecting donations from local businesses for 10 turkeys. To be held at the Jud Bar and Grill-date yet to be determined.

Lion Crystal was a house guest by Gordon and Kathy Irion of Kulm. It was an opportunity to enjoy breakfast at Prairie Farmer Coffee, a new business in Kulm.

Be brave enough to always, always, always do the right thing...even when others don't.

On Wednesday evening, Harvey and Sharon Haarsager and Gary and Lonie Anderson enjoyed a yummy supper at the last of the season's "Burgers in the Park" held in Verona's beautiful park. The meal was prepared by the members of St John's Lutheran Church.

On Sunday, the Haarsagers and the Andersons took a little drive up to Ayr and enjoyed a delicious brunch at the Cottonwood Cider House.

Scary stuff people, be aware!!! MAKE SURE YOUR DAUGHTERS, FRIENDS, RELATIVES, ETC. KNOW!

This was written by a guy from KVLV-TV in Fargo. This is something that happened to us on the way back from vacation last week. At first, I didn't think much of it until now. The reason we were a little suspicious is we had been riding in a jeep all day with 100-degree temps and we stopped at a truck stop for something to drink. When I was leaving, a young girl followed me out and asked what kind of cologne I was wearing. Well, after 7 hours in the car sweating, I don't think you could tell if I was or was not wearing any cologne. We just got in the jeep and said no thanks. Then it was about 3 weeks ago, I was at a service station in Birmingham getting gas. It was about 9:30 pm. I was approached by 2 men and 2 women in a car. The man that was driving asked me 'What kind of perfume do you wear?' I was a bit confused, and I asked him 'Why?' He said, 'We are selling some name brand perfumes, at cheap prices. I said I had no money. He then reached out of the car and handed me paper that was laminated; it had many perfumes on it. I looked quickly at it and gave it back. I said, I have no money. He said it is OK; we take check, cash, or credit cards. Then the people in the car began to laugh. I just got in my car and said no thanks. Then I received this e-mail yesterday and it sent chills up my spine. Please read this. It is no joke. Here is the e-mail I was sent: Dear Friends: I know not all of you are women that I am sending this to, but am hoping you will share this with your wives, daughters, mothers, sisters, etc. Our world seems to be getting crazier by the day. Pipe bombs in mailboxes and sickos in parking lots with perfume. Be careful. I was approached yesterday afternoon around 5:30 PM in the [Wal-Mart] parking lot by two men asking what kind of perfume I was wearing. Then they asked if I'd like to sample some fabulous scent, they were willing to sell me at very reasonable rate. I probably would have agreed had I not received an e-mail warning of a 'Wanna smell this neat perfume?' scam. The men continued to stand between parked cars, I guess to wait for someone else to hit on. I stopped a lady going towards them, pointing at them and telling her about how I was sent an e-mail at work about someone walking up to you at the malls or in parking lots and asking you to SNIFF PERFUME that they are selling at a cheap price or at least compare to which one you like best. THIS IS NOT PERFUME... IT IS ETHER! When you sniff it, you'll pass out. They'll take your wallet, your valuables and heaven knows what else. If it were not for this e-mail, I probably would have sniffed the 'perfume' but thanks to the generosity of an e-mailing friend, I was spared whatever might have happened to me. I wanted to do the same for you. PLEASE PASS THIS ALONG TO ALL YOUR WOMEN FRIENDS AND PLEASE BE ALERT AND BE AWARE. IF YOU ARE A MAN AND RECEIVE THIS, PASS IT ON TO YOUR WOMEN FRIENDS. Ladies, this happened to me yesterday and I didn't smell the perfume either, thanks to this email. This is true. Believe me, I know. I was over by Big Lots in the parking lot at lunch time when I was approached. So, either day or night, it does not matter. There were 3 guys together when I was approached. I called the police when I got back to my desk. Like the email says above, LET EVERYONE KNOW ABOUT THIS - YOUR FRIENDS, FAMILY, CO-WORKERS, whomever. It helped me. The first thing that popped into my head was this e-mail warning.

MAKE SURE YOUR FRIENDS KNOW!!

Monday night, John and Sheri Haro motored over to Becky and Walter Bockwoldt's. Becky treated John and Sheri to some fresh vegetables from her garden.

Wednesday night, John and Sheri went to Verona to attend "Burgers in the Park" put on by St. John's Church. Sheri said, "It is always fun to see the neighbors there".

Three days working at the park last week for me. It is now time to start some of the projects that we have not been able to get to work on this summer. We started painting the picnic tables. We finished all of the red tables, 16 in all. Wednesday afternoon, I attended Bible Study at the home of Karen Sandness. Others attending were Pat Larson, Lonie Anderson, Kathy Potts, Diane Potts, Jean Falter, Dorothy Heinrich, and Jan Hird. Karen led the lesson, and we all enjoyed her delicious lunch after the lesson.

Wednesday evening, Dan and I traveled to Verona to attend "Burgers in the Park". It was the last one for this summer. It was very well attended, and the meal was delicious.

Sunday after church, I went to the park to check the bathrooms, and then I made my way out to Larry Jordahl's home. Tom and Christine Hatton also came to visit and work in the sewing room that belonged to Norma. Watch the paper for news about an upcoming rummage sale at Larry's.

On Monday, Larry and Karen Sandness attended the funeral of Ruth Sheppard, Larry's Aunt. On Tuesday they travelled to Fargo to watch grandson, Nolan Wenaas play flag football in Moorhead. Wednesday, Karen hosted the monthly Bible study at her home. Thursday evening, they attended the birthday party of Emmy Sandness. On Saturday, they watched grandson Leo Boeshans play flag football in Hawley.

At the end of the day all that really matters is that your loved ones are well, you've done your best, and that you are thankful for all you have.

Until Next Week...God Bless!
