THE GOOD NEWS

Are You Awake?

REV. MARK FLATEN

A father knelt down beside his little boy's bed. It was time for prayers, hugs and kisses, and tucking in. The little boy began the childhood prayer he had repeated so many times before:

"Now I lay me down to sleep; I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord, my soul to take."

This time the words got mixed up. Unwittingly, the child spoke words of the greatest wisdom. He prayed, "If I should wake before I die."

Embarrassed, he stopped. "Oh Daddy, I got all mixed up."

Wisely, his dad responded tenderly, "Not at all, son, that's the first time the prayer was properly prayed. My deepest longing for you is that you may wake up before you die."

The child drifted to sleep, but the father turned the prophetic words about in his mind. "If I should wake before I die. That's it!" he exclaimed. "That's the promise of and hope of Easter. This is the time to come alive and live forever!" (That touching story came from David Rumley.)

I hope that you are spiritually awake before you die. Jesus came to earth to wake us up, so we'd be truly alive. He said, "I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows)." (John 10:10 Amplified Bible) We can only enjoy Jesus' abundant life when we wake up spiritually.

Paul told the Romans "If the Spirit of Him Who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, [then] He Who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also restore to life your mortal (short-lived, perishable) bodies through His Spirit Who dwells in you." (Romans 8:11 Amplified Bible)

Peter taught that we have hope of eternal life by what Jesus experienced on Resurrection Sunday. He wrote, "We live in the hope of eternal life because Christ rose again from the dead. And God has reserved for his children the priceless gift of eternal life." (1 Peter 1:3-4 The Living Bible)

Let's be awake before we die! If you need help waking up, let me know.
