THE GOOD NEWS

Who do you know? It could make a difference.

REV. MARK FLATEN

Albert Einstein said, “In the middle of every difficulty lies opportunity.”

I just read this story online this afternoon about a youngster whose difficult situation became an amazing opportunity.

“One day, a little boy named Willie stood wistfully at the gates of Buckingham Palace. He longed to go in and see the king. Between him and the king, however, were iron gates, rigid protocol, armed soldiers, and watchful police. What he wanted was quite out of the question.

A policeman who was ordering the lad to leave suddenly stiffened and sprang to attention as a well-dressed, confident man approached. A brusque nod from the man and the policeman unlocked the gates and stood aside.

‘Come with me, sonny,’ said the man, taking the little boy’s hand. ‘We’re going in to see the king.’

Into the palace they went. Inside were forty housemaids, fifty footmen (including one man who did nothing but wind clocks all day), and six hundred rooms. Willie and the man walked on and on - to the north wing, upstairs, along endless passages, to the king’s corridor on the main floor, and into the master suite.

The man seemed to know the way and chatted about the rooms they passed: the magnificent ballroom that contained two majestic thrones on a raised dais (platform); the stamp rooms that housed the world’s most valuable collection; the Belgian suite with its forty-four rooms for the use of state visitors; the royal wardrobe; the music room; the dining room with a table as large as a skating rink; the dazzling green drawing room.

Finally, they arrived in the king’s presence, and the man spoke.

‘Hello, Father. Here’s a little boy who wants to meet you. Meet my friend Willie. Willie, this is the king.’

The little boy had taken the hand of Edward, Prince of Wales, the king’s son. Through him, Willie gained access to the king.” (Source - wayoflife.org)

Like young Willie, we also have an opportunity to meet someone great through a prince. This prince is the Prince of Peace, Jesus, God’s Son.

The Apostle Paul said, “Now all of us can come to the Father through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done for us.” (Ephesians 2:18 NLT)

Jesus, our Prince and God’s Son, said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me.” (John 14:6 NLT)

This privilege is even greater than meeting any earthly king. And we can have access to Him forever.

Do you know this Prince?
