Do You Remember

45 years ago
September 24, 1980
Rev. Lyle Spicer accepted the call from the Napoleon Baptist Church to become their pastor.

Braddock's Bobcats continued their winning ways as they stopped Emmons Central of Strasburg 54-20. Elaine Leier was again the leading scorer for Braddock with 18 points.

40 years ago
September 25, 1985
Linda Rohrich, former Napoleon resident, was crowned Bismarck's 1985-86 Folkfest Queen. Rohrich is the daughter of George and Marie Rohrich, Napoleon.
