Riehl Point of View Gina Riehl

I had a wonderful week in Jamestown hanging out with the Culliton Clan. I always get to watch lots of sports activities. It was fun to take the boys to their practices and a soccer game on Saturday morning. Watching them use their skills and improving every year is very satisfying. It's so fun to watch them grow and mature in all aspects of life. We did some crafts, some cooking and lots of games. It's also a good feeling to be able to give the adults a few days off to get away and enjoy some together time. I am so thankful to see the beautiful rain on Monday! It's been a while since we have had a soaker. Hopefully, this will help put an end to the prairie fires. It looks like there is rain in the forecast for next week also. I am praying for a nice sunny day this Thursday for the National Day of Prayer. I hope to see many of you there. Times and places were listed in last week's paper.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family of Patti Ann Herring in her passing. The Flasher Public School is busy taking field trips and wrapping up lots of activities for this final month of the school year. The graduation ceremony will be Sunday, May 18th at 2:30PM CT.

Happy birthday to Rose Fergel, Erin Ourada, and Bailey King. I think last week I made a few early wishes. "Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." -Matthew 11:28

Shields News Arlene Bahm

Birthday wishes to Dawn Red Tomahawk, Ed Braun and his mother Lydia Braun, Mandan. Sympathy is extended to the Roger Wenger family, Flasher. The Gerhardt families had an early Easter last Saturday at Lance & Sheyenne Gerhardt's. Levi and Cassie Magilke and girls had Easter with the Magilke family in Mandan.

On Palm Sunday the Craig Family of Porcupine put on a dinner for the Porcupine community plus an Easter Egg hunt for the children. Lots of people attended and enjoyed the day. Easter dinner guests at Glen Bahm's were his mother, Chip Bahm, Fort Yates and Gina Bahm and Amanda Bahm families, Bismarck, Cody Bahm,
