

Speaking of beautification...

Chip sealed main street on Friday September 12. A Special Thank You goes out to all council members, City Auditor, Shawn Udell, Ralph Hanson, John Hanson, and Noel Fischer. Thank You to all business on Main Street and all of Carson citizens for the inconvenience of having main street closed down for a few hours. Many streets were improved this summer with more to come next year.

Selfridge News Debbie Vollmuth

The Sioux County Farmers Union sponsored Selfridge Fun Day on Saturday. There was a long distance egg shoot, kids games, rummage sale, craft vendors, food vendor, and a parade. There weather put a damper on a lot of the festivities, but those who attended really had a nice time. Thanks to all who worked so hard to make the day a success!

Saturday, Vic and Kathy Kraft, Mike Ramella, Nick and Debbie Vollmuth, Terry McQuoid and Sherry Becker conducted the Shields/Selfridge Sportsmen Club Egg Shoot in conjunction with Selfridge Family Fun Day hosted by the Sioux County Farmers Union. The rain made it a very challenging competition. The group tried to schedule shooting between the breaks of rain, which wasn't always possible. At times the shooting participants did get rained on and got wet. At the end of the shoot, they said they had fun. The winners were as follows; 200 Yard— 1st place- Greg Wahlstrom,

Ogilvie, Mn., 2nd place- Harley Baumeister; Bismarck, ND and 3rd-place Terry McQuoid, Isle, Mn., the 100 Yard— 1st place- Terry McQuoid, Isle, Mn., 2nd place- Rick Magnuson, Two Harbors, Mn. and 3rd place- Dale Baumeister, Watauga, SD and the 100 Yard Youth— 1st- place- Hunter Baumeister, Watauga, SD Willy and Lenore Mosset attended the Selfridge Fun Day and enjoyed it. Visiting with everyone is always fun. Geri Mosset went to Bismarck on Sunday. She had an interesting ride home with all the storms. Bonnie Volk and her grandchildren, Sierra and Jameson Volk, were in town for the Fun Day. They really enjoyed it. Nick and Debbie Vollmuth visited with Wade Hepper and Boone Bauer who were in the area for bow elk hunting. They did get a nice bull elk. Nick and Debbie helped at the Shields Selfridge Sportsmen Club Egg Shoot. It is amazing to watch the long range shooters.

Sorry, about not including the birthdays and anniversaries this week. If anyone would be interested in taking over writing the Selfridge News or has News or events for the news, please contact Debbie Vollmuth, 701-471-1027 or debbiev@westriv.com
