ning for our 50th Anniversary. Treasurer's Report: Paid Central City Lumber for materials to repair front of building. Paid for insulation in roof, material & labor. Paid donation to LCIF.
New business: We will celebrate our 50th Anniversary on Saturday, June 14. Bob is working with Bill on developing a program. What he has developed so far sounds really good. Ray is compiling a list of organizations and services that we support. Fox Hole café is celebrating their Grand Opening in conjunction. Truck Pull is scheduled for 19 July. Planning is wrapping up. Bob is finalizing poster. Raffle will be all money to prevent hassle with gun registration. Motion made to replace HVAC system in building. Approved, no opposed.

Next meeting tentatively scheduled for 3 July. Motion to adjourn. Approved, no opposed.

Thank You

I want to give a big hug and a thank you to the Kidder County Ambulance crew who came in the wee hours of Saturday morning, June 7 to transport me to Sanford in Bismarck. The comfort they gave me was wonderful and a blessing to get to the ER quickly. I'd had a mild heart attack so I was admitted. Early Sunday morning, I had a second, bigger heart attack that required two stents to be placed in my heart which have improved things a lot already. The surgeon said I was lucky that I was already in the hospital for the second one because it was considered a "classic widow-maker." I'm very thankful.
