North Dakota Voting Facts and Requirements

There is no voter registration requirement in North Dakota. North Dakota is the only state in the Union that does not require voter registration.

To vote in North Dakota:

1. Must be a U.S. Citizen

2. Must be at least 18 years old on the day of the election.

3. Must be a legal North Dakota Citizen.

4. Must have resided in the precinct you are going to vote in at least 30 days prior to the election.

You can vote by mail in McLean County. An absentee ballot can be obtained by filling out the application form below. The application forms can also be found on the N.D. Secretary of State's website vote.nd.gov , the county's website https://www.mcleancountynd.gov/departments/election-information/vote-by-mail , or by contacting the Mclean County Auditor's office at 701-462-8801. The completed application has to be signed and presented to the auditor's office in a timely matter to allow enough time for a ballot to be mailed back and for the voter to have the ballot return postmarked no later than the day before the election.

The arrangement of candidate names appearing on ballots in your precinct may vary from the published sample ballots, depending upon the precinct and legislative district in which you reside. You can see your precinct's ballot by going to vote.nd.gov and entering your house number and zip code in upper right-hand corner.
